Re: JIC Advisory Opinion 2017-07.

Dear Judge

Your recent request for an advisory opinion was reviewed by the Judicial Investigation Commission at its February 17, 2017 meeting. You want to know if you can run for election to your church parish council or in the alternative whether you could be appointed to a seat on the parish finance committee which is a non-elected position.

The Commission has reviewed Rules 3.1, 3.7(A)(2), and 3.7(A)(6) of the Code of Judicial Conduct to address the question which you have raised:

Rule 3.1 Extrajudicial Activities in General

A judge may engage in extrajudicial activities, except as prohibited by law or this Code. However, when engaging in extrajudicial activities, a judge shall not:

- (A) participate in activities that will interfere with the proper performance of the judge's judicial duties;
- (B) participate in activities that will lead to frequent disqualification of the judge;

- (C) participate in activities that would appear to a reasonable person to undermine the judge's independence, integrity, or impartiality;

Rule 3.7 Participation in Educational, Religious, Charitable, Fraternal, or Civic Organizations and Activities

- (A) Subject to the requirements of Rule 3.1, a judge may participate in activities sponsored by organizations or governmental entities concerned with the law, the legal system, or the administration of justice, and those sponsored by or on behalf of educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organizations not conducted for profit, including but not limited to the following activities:

- (2) soliciting contributions for such an organization or entity, but only from members of the judge's family, or from judges over whom the judge does not exercise supervisory or appellate authority;

- (6) serving as an officer, director, trustee, or nonlegal advisor of such an organization or entity, unless it is likely that the organization or entity:

- (a) will be engaged in proceedings that would ordinarily come before the judge; or

- (b) will frequently be engaged in adversary proceedings in the court of which the judge is a member, or in any court subject to the appellate jurisdiction of the court of which the judge is a member

Based on the foregoing, the Commission believes that you may run for a seat on the church parish council or serve on the finance committee. However, you are reminded that your judicial duties take precedence over all of your extracurricular activities and that you must follow the tenets set forth in Rules 3.1 and 3.7(A) (2) and (6).

We hope this opinion fully addresses the issues which you have raised. If there is any further question regarding this matter do not hesitate to contact the Commission.

Sincerely,

Ronald E. Wilson, Chairperson
Judicial Investigation Commission
