State Law Library presents long-term health care info session For immediate release Wednesday, October 21, 2009

CHARLESTON, W.Va. -- The State Law Library is sponsoring a free informational session on long-term health care at 10 a.m. on Saturday, October 24. The session will be held at the State Law Library, Room E-404 in the East Wing of the State Capitol.

Roy Herzbach, Regional Ombudsman Supervisor of West Virginia's Long-Term Care Ombudsman program, will discuss enhancing the quality of life and improving the level of care for senior citizens who are housed in long-term care facilities such as nursing homes, assisted living facilities, and other types of care homes.

Metered parking is available on California Avenue, behind the Culture Center and near the Piedmont Road parking garage. Parking is free on Saturdays.

The workshop is open to the public and no registration is required. For more information, contact the State Law Library at (304) 558-2607.
