State Law Library Hosts “Your Vote Counts”

For immediate release Monday, Oct. 1, 2012

CHARLESTON, W.Va. – The West Virginia State Law Library will hold a discussion entitled “Your Vote Counts” as part of its brown-bag lunch series from noon to 1 p.m. on Monday, Oct. 8.

Dr. Gerald Beller, Chairman of the Political Science Department at West Virginia State University, will talk about the importance of voting. Following Dr. Geller’s talk there will be a question and answer session. Information on how to register to vote will be available.

Dr. Beller has taught at West Virginia State University for almost 30 years. He also has been a guest columnist for The Charleston Gazette on a variety of topics for 25 years.

The lecture will be held in the State Law Library, on the fourth floor of the East Wing of the State Capitol, Room E-404. It is open to the public and no registration is required. Participants should bring their own lunch. Dessert and beverages will be provided.

Metered parking is available on California Avenue and behind the Culture Center near the Piedmont Avenue parking garage. For more information, contact Brian Cassidy at the State Law Library at (304) 558-2607.
