Chief Justice to speak at Wood County community drug court event

For immediate release Thursday, September 12, 2013

PARKERSBURG, W.Va. – Supreme Court Chief Justice Brent D. Benjamin will be the keynote speaker at a community workshop about adult and juvenile drug courts to be held from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Friday, September 13, in the Fort Boreman Room of the Donald Black Building, 315 Market St., Parkersburg.

Chief Justice Benjamin will speak at 9:15 a.m.

The conference is being sponsored by the Supreme Court of Appeals of West Virginia and Westbrook Health Services. The public is invited to attend the event, which is designed for anyone interested in learning more about drug courts. Speakers will discuss the philosophy and vision of drug courts, how they work, and the role each drug court treatment team member has in the process.

About seventy attorneys, social workers, and law enforcement officials are pre-registered. The $20 attendance fee will be donated to the drug court incentive fund. Lunch will be served only to those pre-registered.
