CORRECTION: CHANGE IN DATE/TIME FOR RANDOLPH EVENT

Drug court graduations in Randolph, McDowell Counties

For immediate release Monday, April 14, 2014

CHARLESTON, W.Va. – Drug court graduation ceremonies will be held in Elkins and Welch tomorrow.

Schedule permitting, West Virginia Supreme Court Justice Brent D. Benjamin will attend a graduation ceremony for the Randolph County Adult Drug Court at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday, April 15, at the Randolph County Courthouse in Elkins. The ceremony is open to the public and will be held in the courtroom of Twentieth Judicial Circuit (Randolph County) Judge Jaymie Wilfong, who is the supervising judge for the drug court.

Justice Benjamin also will attend a graduation ceremony for the McDowell County Juvenile Drug Court at 4 p.m. Tuesday, April 15, in the McDowell County Courthouse in Welch, schedule permitting. The ceremony will be held in the courtroom of Eighth Judicial Circuit (McDowell County) Judge Rudolph J Murensky, II. Twelfth Family Court Circuit (Mercer and McDowell Counties) Judge Lisa J. Clark is the supervising judge of the drug court and will preside over the ceremony.

IMPORTANT NOTE: Because the McDowell County event is a juvenile proceeding, media representatives are requested to NOT reveal the identities of the two graduates. The justice, judge, and drug court coordinator will be available to comment on the program.
