New Officers Take Over Judicial Association For immediate release

Morgantown, W.Va. – The West Virginia Judicial Association’s new officers began work October 22, 2015, the final day of the group’s fall education conference at the Waterfront Place Hotel in Morgantown.

The West Virginia Judicial Association is made up of the seventy circuit judges throughout West Virginia and the five current Supreme Court Justices as well as senior status circuit judges and justices. The group meets twice a year at different locations in West Virginia for educational conferences to discuss issues of importance to the administration of justice and the courts.

Officers are elected at the spring conference but take office at the conclusion of the fall conference. They serve for one year.

The new president is Judge Eric H. O’Briant of the Seventh Judicial Circuit (Logan County.).

The new Vice-President is Judge Christopher C. Wilkes of the Twenty-Third Judicial Circuit (Berkeley, Jefferson, and Morgan Counties).

The new Secretary is Thomas A. Bedell of the Fifteenth Judicial Circuit (Harrison County).

The new Treasurer is Judge James J. Rowe of the Eleventh Judicial Circuit (Greenbrier and Pocahontas Counties).
