Kanawha County to host Black History Month Celebration

For immediate release

CHARLESTON, W.Va. – The Eleventh Family Court Circuit (Kanawha County) Fifth Division will host its Fifth Annual Black History Month “Star” Celebration Program and continuing legal education seminar from noon to 2:30 p.m. on Thursday, Feb. 4, 2016, in the Ceremonial Courtroom (also known as Courtroom No. 4) on the second floor of the Kanawha County Courthouse, 309 Virginia St., Charleston.

This year’s theme is Bridge Builders. The committee’s “Star” honorees are The Honorable Irene Berger, Patricia Edwards, Robert Easley, the late Warne Ferguson, The Honorable Phyllis Gatson, Carole “Cookie” Glasser, Marshall Moss, the late James Parker, and Reverend Matthew Watts.

This year’s celebration will also include a special student/professional dialogue panel called “Wisdom From The Village.” This event will be held right after the reception.

The Eleventh Family Court Circuit – Fifth Division, in conjunction with the Office of the Governor’s Herbert Henderson Office of Minority Affairs is inviting three student representatives from local elementary and middle schools to participate in the discussion of a variety of topics that affect students.

Both events are free and open to the public. West Virginia Legal Aid attorney Kate White will moderate the CLE presentation.
