Supreme Court Establishes Instagram Account

For immediate release Tuesday, June 23, 2020

CHARLESTON, W.Va. – The Supreme Court of Appeals of West Virginia today added an Instagram account to its list of social media accounts that includes Twitter, Facebook, SmugMug, Flickr, and YouTube.

“Research shows that the use of Instagram is expected to grow,” said Chief Justice Tim Armstead. “Having an Instagram account gives us one more way to reach West Virginia citizens with information about the judiciary. Expanding our social media presence is part of the Supreme Court’s continuing work to ensure transparency and accountability throughout the court system.”
