

STATE OF WEST VIRGINIA

At a regular term of the Supreme Court of Appeals, continued and held at Charleston, Kanawha County, on April 7, 2015, the following order was made and entered:

State of West Virginia ex rel. Lisa Miles,
Petitioner

vs.) No. 15-0131

West Virginia Board of Registered Professional Nurses, Respondent

RULE TO SHOW CAUSE

On February 17, 2015, came the petitioner, Lisa Miles, by counsel Lisa L. Lilly, Martin & Seibert, LC, and presented to the Court her petition praying for a writ of prohibition to be directed against the respondent, West Virginia Board of Registered Professional Nurses, as therein set forth. Thereafter, on March 18, 2015, the respondent, West Virginia board of Examiners for Registered Professional Nurses, by counsel Greg S. Foster, Assistant Attorney General, filed its respondent's brief.

Upon consideration, the Court is of the opinion that a rule should be awarded herein. It is therefore considered and ordered that a rule does hereby issue commanding and directing the said respondent, to show cause, if any it can, why a writ of prohibition should not be awarded as prayed for by the petitioner in the said petition. Justice Loughry would refuse the petition.

It is ordered that this matter shall be scheduled for consideration and oral argument under Rule 19 of the Rules of Appellate Procedure on Wednesday, September 2, 2015. The Clerk will, at a later date, furnish counsel of record with a Notice of Argument pursuant to Rule 19(b), which will contain additional information regarding argument.

It is finally ordered that this matter shall be submitted on the pleadings previously filed, without further briefing.
