

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF APPEALS OF WEST VIRGINIA

NO. 15-0933

PLEADING FILED WITH MOTION

STATE OF WEST VIRGINIA,

Plaintiff Below, Appellee,

v.

Appeal from a final order
Of the Circuit Court of
Raleigh County (11-F-286)

BRIAN DANIEL HAYSLETT,

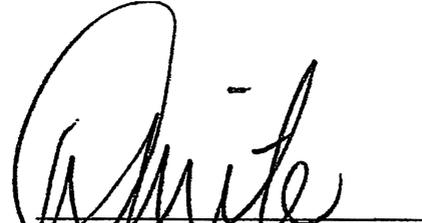

Defendant Below, Appellant.

MOTION TO FILE BRIEF AND APPENDIX
OUT OF TIME

Comes now your Appellant, by his counsel, and respectfully moves the Court for leave to file his Brief and Appendix out of time. In support of said Motion, movant says that Counsel has had an inordinate amount of difficulty obtaining co-operation from his office equipment relative to preparation of the materials required to be filed in the within matter. Further, the handwritten explanation and request for relief heretofore filed is incorporated by reference herein. Counsel respectfully avers that no prejudice will enure to the State of West Virginia if the Court permits the filing as requested. Counsel offers his sincere apologies and remorse for his otiosity in connection with this matter, but respectfully says and avers that he is doing the very best he can under the circumstances

WHEREFORE, your movant prays that the Court will grant the relief herein sought..

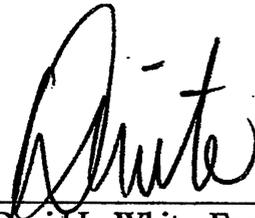

David L. White, Esquire
WV Bar No. 4006
Suite 314, The Peoples Bldg.
179 Summers Street
Charleston, WV 25301
(304) 437-3454
dlwhite01@suddenlink.net

Counsel for Appellant

CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

I, David L. White, do hereby certify that I served true copies of the foregoing "Motion to File Brief and Appendix Out of Time" upon counsel for the Respondent, Kristen Keller, Raleigh County, West Virginia, Prosecuting Attorney, by hand delivering a true copy to her on this 11th day of April, 2016, at 112 North Heber Street, Beckley, WV 25801.

David L. White, Esquire
WV Bar No. 4006
Suite 314, The Peoples Bldg.
179 Summers Street
Charleston, WV 25301
(304) 437-3454
dlwhite01@suddenlink.net