CIRCUIT CLERK'S OFFICE

CIRCUIT COURT CASE NO.: 17-F-14

Boundover Circuit Case No.: 16-B-135

BY _____ Magistrate Court Case No.: 16-M42F-00194

ORDER

On this the 30th day of April, 2018, came the State of West Virginia by its Prosecuting Attorney, Michael W. Parker, and the Defendant in person and by counsel, Dennis J. Willett for Steven B. Nanners. The parties appeared for on the Defendant's Motion to Address Credit for Time Served previously scheduled by the Court.

Counsel for the Defendant called the Defendant to the stand to testify. The State had the opportunity for cross examination. The defense rested. The State further advised that a time sheet had been received from the West Virginia Regional Jail Authority at the time of sentencing. The State advised that the Defendant was seeking credit for time that was served on Randolph County Magistrate Court Cases: 17-M42F-00254 and 17-M42M-00566, and that these pending charges were dismissed pursuant to a universal plea agreement entered in this matter.

The Court, after hearing from both parties, ORDERED that the Division of Corrections had accurately calculated the Defendant's time served and that the Defendant was not entitled to the time served on Randolph County Magistrate Court Cases: 17-M42F-00254 and 17-M42M-00566. The Defendant's objection was noted for the record. The Defendant was then advised of his right to appeal by the Court.
