

CHAPTER 2 – SELF-TEST – ANSWER SHEET

1. Which are guardian responsibilities?

Answer: 3. All of the above.

2. Where does one look to determine the responsibilities of a limited guardian?

Answer: 3. One must look to the court order of appointment which specifies the responsibilities of the limited guardian.

3. When does a temporary guardian's appointment expire?

Answer: 1. Within 6 months of the appointment unless extended by court order; one must check the court order.

4. What is included in the estate of a protected person?

Answer: 3. All of the above.

5. Which are conservator responsibilities?

Answer: 3. All of the above.

6. If one co-guardian or co-conservator does not do his or her duties as required by law, what must the other co-guardian or co-conservator do?

Answer: 2. Act to fulfill the duties and responsibilities as a guardian or conservator as required by law even if the other co-guardian or co-conservator does nothing.

7. How does a guardian or conservator get paid for their work?

Answer: You ask the court to approve the frequency and amount of compensation that you want to be paid for your work.

8. If you believe a protected person's durable power of attorney needs changed, how do you do this?

Answer: 3. You must take the request to have the power of attorney changed back to the court for approval.

9. How often will the guardian reports or conservator accountings that you file be examined?

Answer: 1. Semi-annually.

10. Where can you find additional information and state law on guardianship and conservatorship law?

Answer: 3. Both of the above.