Re: JIC Advisory Opinion 2018-08.

Dear

Your recent request for an advisory opinion was reviewed by the Judicial Investigation Commission. The factual scenario giving rise to your request is as follows: Several homes on your street/block are participating in a "block yard sale." Along with other members of your family, you would like to participate by selling your items from the yard of your home.

The Commission has reviewed the Code of Judicial Conduct to address the question which you have raised. The Commission is of the opinion that your participation in a block yard sale would not violate any rules of the Code of Judicial Conduct governing extrajudicial activities since you will be selling only the items belong to you for your personal gain.

We hope this opinion fully addresses the issue which you have raised. If there is any further question regarding this matter do not hesitate to contact the Commission.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Ronald E. Wilson", is written over a horizontal line.

Ronald E. Wilson, Chairperson
Judicial Investigation Commission
