Holmes, Law Office of Harris & Holmes, PLLC; and Anne McGinness Kears and Natalie Deyneka, Motley Rice LLC, filed a response to the petition.

Upon consideration, the Court is of the opinion that a rule should be awarded herein. It is therefore considered and ordered that a rule does hereby issue commanding and directing the said respondents, to show cause, if any they can, why a writ of prohibition should not be awarded, as prayed for by the petitioners in the said petition.

It is further ordered that this matter shall be and it hereby is, consolidated with State ex rel. Johnson & Johnson, et al. v. Hon. Moats, et al., No. 20-0751, for purposes of oral argument, consideration, and decision.

It is ordered that these cases shall be scheduled for consideration and oral argument under Rule 20 of the Rules of Appellate Procedure on Wednesday, February 17, 2021, at 10:00 o'clock a.m., and this order constitutes the Notice of Argument pursuant to Rule 20(b).

It is finally ordered that this matter shall be submitted on the pleadings previously filed, without further briefing.

Justice Workman would refuse the petition.
