ORDER CONFIRMING SUBSTITUTION OF COUNSEL

This day came Conwood Company, L.P., a defendant in the above-styled matter, by and through its attorney, Martin J. Glasser, of the law firm of Lewis Glasser Casey & Rollins, together with W. Henry Jernigan, Jr. of the law of Dinsmore & Shohl and filed a joint stipulation advising that Lewis Glasser Casey & Rollins is withdrawing from the representation of Conwood Company, L.P. and that Dinsmore & Shohl is being substituted in its stead. The Court finds that the proposed stipulation is otherwise proper and, accordingly, directs the Clerk to file both the Stipulation and this Order into the record of the case and to reflect the change in counsel in that record.
