At the Supreme Court of Appeals, continued and held at Charleston, Kanawha County, on August 5, 2021, the following order was made and entered in vacation:

State of West Virginia ex rel. The County
Commission of Tyler County,
Petitioner

FILED

AUG - 9 2021

Candy L. Warner
Tyler Co. Circuit Clerk

vs.) No. 21-0620

The Honorable Christopher C. Wilkes,
Senior Judge, Business Court Division, and Antero Resources Corporation,
Respondents

SCHEDULING ORDER

On August 4, 2021, the petitioner, State of West Virginia ex rel. The County Commission of Tyler County, by counsel D. Luke Furbee, Tyler County Prosecuting Attorney, presented to the Court a petition praying for a writ of prohibition, together with an appendix record, to be directed against the respondent, The Honorable Christopher C. Wilkes, Senior Judge, Business Court Division.

It is ordered that the respondent shall file a response to the petition, pursuant to Rule 16(g), Rules of Appellate Procedure ("R.A.P."), or a summary response, pursuant to Rule 16(h), on or before September 27, 2021. Pursuant to Rule 16(d), R.A.P., the presiding judicial officer of the lower tribunal is listed as the respondent. However, the presiding judicial officer is a nominal party and is not directed to file a response in this matter.

Once the deadline for filing the response has passed, this matter will be mature for consideration by the Court pursuant to Rule 16(i). In due course thereafter, all parties will be notified in writing of any decision in the case.
