AND GRANTING DEFENDANT'S MOTION TO COMPEL

On a previous day this Court entered an Order Granting In Part Defendants' Motion to Dismiss and Granting Plaintiff's Motion to Continue, which held in abeyance the Defendants' Motion to Dismiss as it pertains to Plaintiff's failure to plead fraud with specificity. The Court permitted the Plaintiff to supplement the record and briefs to reflect the allegations and damages within the Complaint within sixty (60) days following entry of the Order.

The Court hereby further amends that Order to allow Plaintiff until June 9, 2015 to supplement the record and his briefs to support the allegations of fraud within the Complaint, if so desired.

Further, upon consideration of the parties' briefing regarding Plaintiff's Motion seeking a second continuance of the trial, this Court hereby grants the Motion to Continue and will issue a new scheduling order within thirty (30) days.

Finally, upon consideration of the Defendant's Motion to Compel discovery responses, the Court grants that Motion. The Plaintiff is ordered to respond to the Defendant's pending discovery within twenty (20) days of entry of this Order.
