

No. 21965 -- Webster County Board of Education v. Wanetta Johns

Neely, J., dissenting:

I dissent because this case exalts form over substance.

Schools are designed for students, not for staff. We must resist allowing the means to become the ends in all of government, but particularly in education.