EXHIBITS TO MEDIATION STATEMENT

- 8. MEMORIALIZATION OF SETTLEMENT

9. If the parties reach a resolution of their dispute, the Resolution Judge will ensure that it is memorialized before the mediation is deemed concluded. The undersigned encourages the parties to bring to the mediation a form settlement agreement to be completed if terms are agreed.

EX PARTE CONTACTS

10. Before, during and after the scheduled mediation, the Resolution Judge may find it necessary and useful to communicate with one or more parties outside the presence of the other party or parties.

OBLIGATION OF GOOD FAITH PARTICIPATION

11. The required participants shall attend the entire mediation in person and shall be available and accessible throughout the mediation process. No party may be compelled by this Order, the Presiding Judge, or the Resolution Judge to settle a case involuntarily or against the party's judgment. However, the Resolution Judge expects the parties' full and good faith cooperation with the mediation process and expects the participants to be prepared to participate fully, openly and knowledgeably in a mutual effort to examine and resolve issues. The Resolution Judge encourages all participants to keep an open mind, to reassess their previous positions, and to find innovative means for resolving the dispute.

ARBITRATION

12. If the parties agree to binding arbitration rather than mediation, they shall notify the resolution judge and tender an agreement signed by the parties, setting out the terms and procedure agreed to. The resolution judge will then schedule the time and place for the arbitration. Traditional rules of evidence and procedure will not apply but shall be considered as a guide toward full and fair development of the facts. The parties may agree in writing to rely on stipulations and/or statements rather than live testimony of witnesses. At the conclusion of Arbitration, a decision will be rendered promptly.

The parties must notify the Resolution Judge promptly if a settlement is reached before commencing mediation.

All counsel are reminded of their obligations to read and comply with this Order. To avoid the imposition of sanctions, counsel shall advise the Resolution Judge immediately of any problems regarding compliance with the Order.

It is so ORDERED.

The Clerk shall transmit certified copies to counsel of record and pro se parties.
