ELECTRONICALLY STORED INFORMATION DISCOVERY:

All parties and counsel shall cooperate and work diligently to agree upon the methods and conduct for discovery of electronically stored information.

All counsel are required to be informed of and understand to a reasonable degree of their client's information management systems and electronically stored information processes including how information is stored and retrieved. An attorney's lack of knowledge will not be considered as an excuse by this Court in ruling upon a motion to compel or a motion for discovery sanctions.

A party has an obligation to take reasonable and proportional steps to preserve discoverable information in the party's possession, custody, or control. The Court may issue sanctions for spoliation, the intentional or negligent destruction, or failure to preserve relevant electronically stored information. A party may move for an order to preserve electronically stored information upon a showing that the continuing existence and integrity of the information is threatened.

All requests made pursuant to Rule 34 of West Virginia Rules of Civil Procedure shall be construed to include information contained or stored in an electronic medium, regardless of format, unless otherwise stated.

Unless otherwise agreed upon, all production of electronically stored information shall be either in hard copy form or in the form of a compact disk (CD) utilizing a format best suited for viewing the information by the requesting party and reasonably accessible to the producing party. If the parties are unable to agree upon a format, the Court will rule upon the type of format to be used for a particular category or all discovery of electronically stored information.

If any party intends to utilize an electronic search of another party's electronically stored information or if any other issue regarding electronically stored information arises between the parties, then all counsel and pro se parties shall hold a conference. The requesting party shall give reasonable notice to all parties, and all counsel and pro se parties shall be present. The conference must be held at least 40 days prior to the completion of discovery, as set by the scheduling order in this matter.

At the conference, all counsel and pro se parties shall use their best efforts to reach an agreement as to the method of search, the scope of the search, the amount of searching, and the words; terms, or phrases to be used. All counsel and pro se parties shall utilize this conference to resolve all remaining electronic discovery issues such as the allocation of discovery costs for material not readily accessible, form of production, etc.

If, during a search or otherwise, electronically stored information that contains privileged information or attorney work product is inadvertently released in whole or part, then

If the information, document, or material, on its face, appears to be privileged or attorney work product, it shall be immediately returned,

If notice of the inadvertent disclosure is given, it shall be returned as soon as practicable, and in no case later than 10 days.

Upon returning the privileged or attorney work product material, any person to whom it has been disclosed, must destroy any copies, notes, or information derived from the material. The filing of a motion for protective order or to compel or other similarly related motion shall not affect this order.

6. MOTIONS IN LIMINE MUST BE FILED AT LEAST 10 DAYS BEFORE PRE-TRIAL AND WILL BE RULED UPON AT THE PRE-TRIAL CONFERENCE.

7. MEDIATION/ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION: The parties have mediated this case per the prior Scheduling Order.

8. SANCTIONS: In accordance with WVRCP 16(f), the Court may impose the full spectrum of sanctions authorized by the WVRCP if a party or party's counsel fails to obey this order or other orders of this Court including exclusion of evidence and granting of default for failure to comply.

9. UNLESS AUTHORIZED BY COURT ORDER, THE ABOVE DATES ARE FINAL. No additional evidence developed as a result of deviations from the above schedule will be admissible at trial unless justice requires.

10. OBJECTIONS to the above schedule must be made to the undersigned Judge within 15 days of the date of this Order or will be deemed waived.
