

Involuntary Commitment Video RFP Questions and Answers

1. What is the budget?
  - a. The budget is $20,000 from a federal grant and cannot be exceeded.
2. When do you anticipate the draft script being ready for us to look at?
  - a. We anticipate finalizing the script shortly before shooting begins.
3. What are your casting needs?
  - a. The production company will supply the following cast members:
    - i. Off-screen narrator (no on-camera host). This will be all narration with no on-camera speaking parts.
    - ii. Respondent: Man in late 20s, early 30s (professional actor)
    - iii. Plaintiff: Woman or a couple who are the Respondent's parents (professional actor/actors)
  - b. We will supply the following cast members:
    - i. 911 operator
    - ii. Judge
    - iii. Magistrate
    - iv. Mental hygiene commissioner
    - v. Deputy
    - vi. Attorney for Respondent
    - vii. Prosecuting attorney
    - viii. Two psychologists/doctors
    - ix. Court reporter
4. What type of set/backdrop is needed? How will it be used?
  - a. No backdrop will be needed.
6. Does the Court have an Involuntary Commitment video currently in use or will this be the first video of its kind?
  - a. No. This will be the first.
7. How many filming locations do you envision?
  - a. There will be six general locations, which we will provide:
    - i. House: bedroom, kitchen, bathroom, computer at desk or table, driveway, car in driveway, and mailbox
    - ii. Offices: 7 different offices
    - iii. Courthouse: outside shot, hallway shot, hearing room, circuit clerk filing counter (prefer to shoot in Putnam County)
    - iv. Hospital: One room, several shots (we are working on securing this location)
    - v. 911 Center: one quick shot
    - vi. Supreme Court: one quick shot
8. Where do you want to shoot? For example, is there a certain city or courthouse that needs to be featured in the production?
  - a. See above. The production company does not need to supply the locations.