

West Virginia Board of Law Examiners

Bar Examination Courtesy Accommodations for Lactation

Courtesy accommodations for lactation may be available upon request. A request for lactation accommodations must include documentation from the child's pediatrician or your obstetrician verifying the child's reliance on breast milk and the child's date of birth. Check all accommodations you believe will be necessary on the exam days.

Print applicant name: _____ 20____ February Exam and complete exam administration information to right. 20____ July Exam

- Permission to bring a breast pump and storage container for supplies (a cooler if necessary)
- Seating in close proximity to the restrooms/swiftest possible route between the test room and the lactation area during breaks (the exam venue may not be equipped with a private lactation room conveniently located to the designated testing room; the lactation area may be temporary in design and structure)
- A private location for expressing milk
- Electrical outlet
- Other _____

Applicant Signature / Date

Completed form and physician's statement verifying requested accommodations should be received in the WVBLE office no later than July 1st preceding the July exam or February 1st preceding the February exam.